LONG ISLAND UNIVERSITY STUDENT WINS PRESTIGIOUS WAL-MART/PHARMACY TIMES RESPY AWARD

*National Award given to fifth year pharmacy students who exemplify Respect, Excellence, and Service in Pharmacy

BROOKLYN, NY, April, 10, 2008 – Kathleen Kawar, a fifth-year student at the Arnold & Marie Schwartz College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences of Long Island University (LIU), has been selected among a host of national entries as the 2008 Wal-Mart/Pharmacy Times RESPY award winner. The RESPY (respect, excellence, and service in pharmacy) is a national award which recognizes outstanding student pharmacists for their community service efforts. Ms. Kawar serves as the president of the college's chapter of the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP) and also participates in area health fairs.
